We will let your child know if they have been allocated a space on the trips they have selected (the sooner the form comes back the better the chance of securing a space). We can NOT take bookings by email or text, please bring back the consent form in person or put it through the youth café letter box.

If your child can not attend, please give us notice so we can give their space to someone else.

We will be traveling to and from the venues by minibus, except for the meadowland's activity.

Thank you,

Vicki and the Youth Café Team.
